Cocktails, canapes and Carrara marble

Paying homage to our heritage, this all-day drinking and dining space is named after the original owners of 36 Kensington Road. Doubling as a neighborhood delicatessen and retail store selling our range of premium local and international produce, Willmott's Gastronomica is the perfect location for your next intimate event.

Original design elements in what was once a family butchers shop have been faithfully restored, with features such as the pressed tin ceiling and exposed original brickwork juxtaposed perfectly against the modern additions of a twelve-meter Carrara marble bar and architectural steel.
